

Director Report

Want to know more about a Director's corporate history?

Comprehensive and up-to-date information on over 6 million director/company officer appointments within UK registered companies.

Every report provides the Graydon Credit Risk category, detailing what level of risk is associated with each active company within the report. Company Credit Risk ranges from Low Risk, Low Normal Risk, Normal Risk, Above Normal Risk to High Risk and is based on all characteristics known to impact on Graydon's predictive Credit Rating system.

The beginning of the report provides you with three clear summaries:

- The total number of active and dissolved companies and (where applicable) companies with insolvency action pending
- The credit risk categories associated with the relevant companies - where the Director or Company Secretary is currently appointed
- The total number of resignations that occurred in the directors/company officer's past

How to obtain the Director Report

The Director Report is available via the internet on Graydon's online service for registered users, with reports delivered directly to your PC screen or email.

Why should you choose Graydon's Director Report?

A comprehensive, detailed report per individual director or company officer giving, (where available) the individual's date of birth and service address.

The appointment date, position and occupation of the individual, and the Company Credit Risk category is stated for all appointments under active, dissolved and insolvency action companies. The company resignations per individual also appear.

This is the only Director Report to provide you with a credit risk summary of all active companies and as a result is one of the best comprehensive Director Reports available in the UK.

Searching for the report and basic details are free-of-charge.

Who should you take a Director Report on?

Use it to find out more about any director/company officer that you are doing business with, for example, partners, suppliers, competitors or to aid the recruitment process.

This report is an excellent research tool to be used independently or alongside the Graydon credit report, for additional information on the associated credit risk. In cases where a credit report cannot provide a track record of the subject company, the Director Report may provide more information on the track record of the individual director.

The report will confirm their occupational status and the period of time they have resided at various appointments, so that you can draw your own conclusions and make business decisions.
